RE: SOS Mission Trips Info and details

SOS Member and family,

Congrats on working enough volunteer hours to earn this awesome opportunity to attend our 2nd Annual SOS Mission Trip. This document will contain details, required permission slips, and list of materials you need for this trip if you decide to attend. The trip is free because SOS is covering the $275 per member fee. SOS Mission Trip #1 (Middle School Students) July 2nd through July 7th SOS members meet at Unity Presbyterian Church, 215 Unity Trestle Rd, Plum, PA 15239, at 12 PM on July 2nd, 2018. Mr. Cooley will provide transportation in the SOS van (or SOS will rent a large van) & follow the members of Unity Presbyterian Youth Group to Ligonier Camp & Conference Center:

188 MACARTNEY LANE, LIGONIER, PA 15658 <http://www.ligoniercamp.org> (724) 238-6428 x110

Our daily routine will consist of the following:

- Breakfast, then morning service project work time
- Lunch, then afternoon service project work time (could be same as morning work)
- Shower/Clean up
- Free Time/Down Time
- Dinner and free time
- Camp Games with all campers of camp
- Evening Club Time
 - This is where there will be a spiritual teaching and devotion offered to campers. SOS members will attend these sessions to be part of the group to deepen bond of team. This club time is not anything intensive, but a chance to talk about how being a good person connects to teachings in the bible. SOS members and family must be comfortable with this format to attend the mission trip.
- 2 entertainment opportunities during week include fireworks and parade on 4th of July and swimming in lake resort near our camp

- We will return on July 7th probably in early late morning or early afternoon.

If planning on attending the trip, SOS needs to know as soon as possible. Contact SOS at servingothersouls@gmail.com to confirm your spot. Fill out all forms in this email and bring July 2nd. No forms, no attendance at trips. We look forward to hearing from you and seeing you for the trip!
